

Name _____

Dementia

Described

- The inability to think c_____
- The inability to think r_____
- The inability to think l_____
- The inability to r_____

An Umbrella Term

- Dementia is not a disease in itself. It is an “umbrella” or categorical term that describes a group of s_____ and is not the name of a specific d_____.
- Dementia can be r_____ or ir_____.
- It is estimated that there are between 90 and 100 types of diseases that can cause dementia.

Reversible Dementia	Irreversible Dementia
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • D _____ • D _____ • D _____ • Nutritional Disorders • Metabolic Disorder • Infection (UTI, urinary tract infections) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Progressive disorders • Vascular dementia • Subcortical dementia • Head _____ • _____ diseases